The marriage of Miss Marie Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edw. Carter, and Lieut. Patton Buchanan, U. S. N., took place last night at 8 o'clock at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends.

Rev. Dr. Talbot, rector of the church, performed the ceremony.

The chancel was banked with palms and great clusters of white chrysanthemums filled the altar vases.

The bride, who was escorted and later given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful gown of white satin embroidered in pearls. The bodice was made almost entirely of rose point lace mounted on tulle and the skirt had paniers of the satin over an under-dress of lace. The court train was of broad lace. She wore a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of orchids and valley lilies.

Later Lieut. and Mrs. Buchanan left for a wedding trip to Texas, where they will visit the former's family. The bride wore a traveling suit of brown broadcloth, trimmed with beaver, and a small hat to match.

The Privilege of Exchanging Goods Is a Convenience

—And No Convenience Should Be Abused.

There is a sense of security enjoyed by the shopper who buys an article knowing that if it is not exactly what's wanted the shopkeeper stands ready to make a fair exchange.

That's a convenience to the shopper—an additional item in the cost of store-service.

If you are one of those who habitually EXCHANGE GOODS or RETURN GOODS just pause and think how your abuse of a real convenience is adding to the cost of the service you require and unquestionably increasing the price of the goods you buy.

Be reasonable in your requirements and you'll be helping in the general movement to reduce the high cost of living.

The fiftieth anniversary of their marriage was celebrated yesterday by Edward F. and Mary Bentley Thomas at their home, Belmont, Sandy Spring Md.

Sixty relatives were present and signed the certificate of marriage which had been used fifty years ago, when, according to the customs of Friends, it was signed by the guests as witnesses after their wedding ceremony.

All of the bridal party was present on the fiftieth anniversary. They were Mrs. Joseph T. Moore, Mr. A. G. Thomas, Mrs. Louisa T. Brooke, Mr. Granville Farquhar, Mrs. William Lea and Mr. John Thomas, all but one of whom still live in Sandy Spring, and the "bride and groom," within one and one-half miles of their birth places.

There has never been a break in the bridal party, "the tie that binds" been broken in any way, among the six children, five in-laws and eight grandchildren.

While the wedding party sat at supper, around the wedding cake encircled with fifty yellow candles, the children and grandchildren stood with hands clasped, forming a "golden" chain around them, and Mrs. George B. Farquhar, the oldest daughter, read the clever verses apropos to the occasion.

Jack Bentley, a nephew of Mrs. Thomas, read the certificate, and the names of those who had signed it fifty years ago, sixty of whom had passed away.

This fiftieth anniversary was made as cheery as possible by the reading of bright letters, by instrumental music, songs and laughter and hearty greetings, and many beautiful gifts, from all who came from far and near.

Mrs. Thomas repeating the saying that "one wedding brings another," announced the engagement of her niece, Miss Jennie Lovett Lea, to Dr. Gilbert Tyson Smith, formerly of Sandy Spring, now of Neroton, Conn.

Among the guests were: Mrs. William Lea and Miss Jennie L. Lea of Wilmington, Del.; Mr. and Mrs. William A. Dixon of Baltimore, Mrs. Robert H. Walker and Miss Cornelia N. Walker of Lincoln, Va.; Mrs. M. A. Manneke and Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Thomas and family of Silver Spring, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Farquhar, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wafer, Jr. and Mrs. Orville Peters, Miss E. H. Thomas, Miss Lucy Lea and Miss Mary Willis Farquhar of Washington and Dr. and Mrs. D. N. Shoemaker of Takoma Park.

Mrs. Archibald Grace and Miss Edith Temple Grace, who have been visiting Mrs. Grace's sister, Mrs. Dulaliba Dutton, in New York, have been detained there, owing to a fall which Mrs. Dutton received after returning from the opera Friday night.

Mrs. Grace has been ill from laryngitis and will have to remain a week longer, when she and her mother will return and open their house for the season.

The Misses Ruth and Helen Harrison entertained at a tea yesterday afternoon in honor of their house guest, Miss Lillian Easton. Varbruyck of Vineland, N. J. They were assisted by Miss Dorothy May Davis, Miss Rosa Elliott, Miss Frances Falconer, Miss Helen Grandfield and Miss Olga Melick.
